UPSC Examination

The Civil Services Examination (CSE) is a nationwide competitive examination in India conducted by the Union Public Service Commission for recruitment to various Civil Services of the Government of India, including the Indian Administrative Service, Indian Foreign Service, and Indian Police Service. Also simply referred to as the UPSC examination.

It is conducted in three phases – a preliminary examination consisting of two objective-type papers (General Studies Paper I and General Studies Paper II also popularly known as Civil Service Aptitude Test or CSAT), and a main examination consisting of nine papers, followed by a personality test (interview).

Exam Pattern

PRELIMINARY EXAM

The first stage of the IAS examination is the preliminary stage. A few important facts about this stage are mentioned below:

- It has two papers – General Studies 1 (GS 1) and CSAT
- Each paper is of 200 marks – objective and multiple-choice questions.
- GS 1 has 100 questions, while CSAT has 80 questions.
- CSAT is qualifying in nature – 33% marks required.
- Candidates qualify for Mains stage on the basis of marks obtained in GS 1

MAINS EXAMINATION

Candidates who clear the preliminary stage are qualified to appear for the second stage of the UPSC Exam which is the Mains stage. The important facts about the Mains examination are given below:

- It has nine theory/descriptive papers
- Out of nine papers, two language papers (English and Regional Language) are qualifying in nature – 300 marks each paper.
- GS 1, 2, 3 and 4 are four general studies papers – 250 marks each.
- There is one essay paper and 2 optional papers (based on the subject a candidate opts for) – 250 marks each.
- Candidates qualify for the interview stage based on the marks scored in GS 1-4, Essay and Optional Papers and these scores are considered for the final merit rankings along with the interview score.
